

Call For Poetry - Seventh Anthology

Entries for our 2018 Anthology are now open for all paid up members of Dangerously Poetic, Inc. For a membership application- please download from www.dangerouslypoetic.com

The theme is Truth and Lies. This can be interpreted broadly. A poem doesn't have to be true and doesn't have to be about you. On the other hand, many great poems touch an inner truth not found elsewhere.

- All entrants must be paid up members.
- Up to 5 poems- 50 line limit per poem
- Times New Roman font 12 pt., one and a half spaced lines on A4
- Two copies of each poem. Keep copies as they will not be returned.
- Poems should have been workshopped and ready for publication.
- Please have your name on the poem.
- All poems must be original work. Previously published and award-winning poems are welcome. No simultaneous submissions please.
- Email address for results.

Deadline- 30 November, 2017 to PO BOX 524, Byron Bay, 2481.

Projected publication- April 2018 Authors retain copyright, but DPP reserves the right to publish selected entries without payment for the anthology. Authors will be offered one free copy and a special discount on other copies of the anthology. All members are encouraged to participate in the marketing of our publications.

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

Post Code _____ phone # _____ email _____

Title of Entries

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

I am a paid member of DP, Inc. Or Enclosed membership appl. & dues.

Signature _____ Date _____